Enjoy the break!!

PLAY IN A DAY

To commemorate 100 years since the battle, we will be enjoying a play about the Battle of the Somme in school on Friday, 27th May. The event is being put on for all children and is free of charge.

THANK YOU & GOODBYE MISS BROOKS

We send our thanks to Miss Brooks who will be leaving us next Thursday; she has been working with our children since October. We are grateful for all your help and wish you happiness and success in the future. We will miss you.

CLASS PHOTOGRAPHS

Children will be having class photographs taken in school on Thursday, 26th May. Photographs will be available to buy after the half term break.

THANK YOU & GOODBYE JOSIE

Josie, one of our kitchen staff, will be leaving St Joseph's when we finish for our half term break after working in our school kitchen for 17 years. We are very grateful for everything that you have given to our children, especially the food!!!

THIS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

Taken from the Gospel for 22nd May, 2016

(John 16:12-15): Father, Son and Spirit

Jesus said to his disciples: "I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine; that is why I said: 'All he tells you will be taken from what is mine'."

KNOWSLEY SCHOOL FOR HEALTH AWARD

School has achieved the silver level of the Knowsley School for Health Award. The award recognises our commitment to encourage healthy eating and physical activity through a range of targeted interventions within the school community.
