THIS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

Taken from the Gospel for 26th June 2016

(Luke 9:51-62): Uncompromising Discipleship

As the time drew near for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely took the road for Jerusalem and sent messengers ahead of him. These set out and they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him, but the people would not receive him because he was making for Jerusalem. Seeing this, the disciples James and John said "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?" But he turned and rebuked them and they went off to another village. As they travelled along they met a man on the road who said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus answered "Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." Another to whom he said "Follow me," replied "Let me go and bury my father first." But he answered, "Leave the dead to bury their dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the kingdom of God." Another said "I will follow you sir, but first let me go and say goodbye to my people at home." Jesus said to him, "Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."
