BEST CLASS ATTENDANCE & PUNCTUALITY

Year 1 have had the best attendance and punctuality this week. Well done Year 1!!!

BIRD BOXES LAUDATO SI

Children in Year 6 will be making bird boxes next week. This is in response to the letter from Pope Francis addressed to every person on this planet. In it he says "The earth is God's gift to us. It is full of beauty and wonder, it belongs to everyone. So let us put love for the world and love for our neighbour into action by living together in harmony and caring for nature." More details can be found by following the CAFOD link on our school website.

AINTREE TRAINERS VISIT

Trainers from Aintree race course will be visiting Year 6 on Wednesday 13th July to speak to the children about working at the race course.

This day will also be a non-uniform day.

Tickets are £2.00 and entry will be by ticket only. Hot dogs, sweets, crisps and drinks will be on sale. Tickets will be on sale from the school office from Monday, 11th July.

INFANTS' SPORTS DAY

Children from Reception Class, Year 1 and Year 2 are to come to school wearing their P.E. kit on Tuesday, 12th July. Children can wear pumps or training shoes, but must have their uniform with them to change back into after this event. Sports day starts at 9.30 a.m.

SCHOOL REPORTS

Your child should have brought their school report home today. If you would like to discuss the report with your child's class teacher, please contact school to make an appointment.

YEAR 6 SIGN LANGUAGE ASSEMBLY

Year 6 will be leading a sign language assembly in school on Friday, 15th July at 9.10 a.m. to showcase what they have learnt during their 10 weeks of sign language sessions in school. Hope you can make it!

THIS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

Taken from the Gospel for 10th July 2016 (Luke 10:25-37):
The Good Samaritan - There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, "Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" He replied, "You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself." "You have answered right," said Jesus. "Do this and life is yours." But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbour?" Jesus replied, "A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. 'Look after him,' he said, 'and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have.' Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands' hands?" "The one, who took pity on him," he replied. Jesus said to him, "Go, and do the same yourself."
