DEAF AWARENESS WEEK

Deaf Awareness Week is an annual event to raise awareness and challenges of Deafness and hearing loss faced by 1 in 6 people in the UK.

This year our theme is about 'Celebrating Role Models' and throughout the week it will focus on different areas of life and work and encourage organisations to celebrate their role models and create awareness of the celebration.

Craig Crowley, Chair of the UK Council on Deafness, states: "This year's Deaf Awareness Week is an excellent opportunity to celebrate all role models and raise awareness of Deafness and hearing loss in such an inspiring way for all". More information is available from the Deaf Awareness Week website at:-
<http://deafcouncil.org.uk/deaf-awareness-week/>

We will be discussing deaf awareness during assemblies that week.

PARKING IN HURST PARK COURT RESIDENTIAL HOME

School has received a phone call from the Manager of Hurst Park Court Residential Home requesting that parents do not use the car park of the home when dropping off and picking up children. The car park is private and for the use of resident's relatives, staff and other health professionals. It should also be kept clear in case they have an emergency and need to call the ambulance services.
